Our petition for Sonoma County and its 9 cities to pass CER's aligned with CURRENT science, including goals to reach Zero Net emissions by 2030 and commit to a meaningful list of actions <https://www.change.org/p/city-councilmembers-and-county-supervisors-support-climate-emergency-action-in-sonoma-county>

What people can do:

Go to city council, climate sub committee, climate ad hoc committee, board of supervisor and Regional Climate Protection Authority (RCPA) meetings. State your thoughts, concerns, and questions on the climate crisis. Find out what work is being done at a local level, weigh in on actions, propose actions, etc

Links for meeting info including calendar, agendas, times locations:

SR city council - <https://srcity.org/1322/City-Council>

SR Climate Action Subcommittee - <https://srcity.org/3107/Climate-Action-Subcommittee>

County Board of Supervisors - <https://sonomacounty.ca.gov/Board-of-Supervisors/Board-Meetings/>

as well as your city if you are not in Santa Rosa

RCPA - <https://rcpa.ca.gov/meetings-and-events/>

All 8 other cities hold city council meetings as well

All these meetings have email lists one can sign up for to receive meeting reminders and agenda's

Write or visit your elected officials and Regional Climate Protection Authority (RCPA) board members from city to county to assembly to senate ask them what they are doing about climate ask them to do more

ask them to support certain legislation

tell them your concerns

and then

Get out and VOTE - get others to VOTE

VOTE for candidates for whom climate is a priority

When in doubt vote blue but more and more candidates on both sides of the aisle are waking up to the climate crisis

Make your own small group and get active

Join an existing group

Here are some great local organizations, though this is by no means all !
