Thursday, Feb. 7, 2019 - EXHIBIT- The Great Black Migration 1910 to 1970

Black migration shifted the center of African American social, economic, political and cultural life from the rural South. See the pictures and read the stories of the people that left the South headed for the promise land - Free Open to the Public

Saturday, Feb. 9, Children's Story Time - 10 a.m. - noon. A parent must be present

Lecture by Sharon McGriff-Payne

Sunday, Feb. 10 - 1 p.m., author of John Grider's Century - African Americans in Solano, Napa and Sonoma Counties 1845-1925. Sharon is a storyteller and history sleuth. Her story of John Grider, a Bear Flag Revolt veteran and some of the amazing early African Americans to California's North Bay Counties will keep you on the edge of your seat. Free Open to the Public

Lecture by Dr. Martha C. Taylor

Sunday, March 3 - 2 p.m. author of From Labor to Reward. No other author has chronicled the rich religious experiences of black church beginnings in the Bay Area from 1849 through 1972. Dr. Taylor captures the joys, frustrations, and unity of black people who left the segregated Deep South, came to the Bay Area seeking freedom only to face similar adversities of segregation, racism and other social-political barriers. Free and Open to the Public
